

COSTA RICA NEEDS GOD

MISSIONARY DEAN ALJIM MEDRANO

Dear Pastor Joseph Sabater and Hopewell Baptist Church ,

Greetings in the Name of our most high God, Jesus Christ!

Faithfully holding the rope is challenging. It takes commitment and love to carry it out. Holding the rope brings you beyond your limitations. Both of us will obtain scars on our hands as I go down into the deep well and as you hold it to keep it stable and secure. Our hands will suffer and be bloody. I believe that's the cost— the high cost of following Christ, and we have to pay the price. Someday, in heaven, we will receive a reward, a fruit of our commitment and love and that's far better than our sacrifices here on earth, that reward is our loving Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Thank you for faithfully holding the rope through prayers and financial support. You are a great blessing and an encouragement to me as I pursue God's calling in my life there in the field of Costa Rica.

Deputation is quite challenging right now. But I thank the Lord for Pastors and Churches like you who received me for the sake of the Gospel. I was able to visit different Churches around Luzon area and I am thankful to God for allowing me to meet these loving people.

This time, do pray for me, I am going back to the field this coming September. I am excited to see my mission field again, this time with Pastor Gerry Nable. We will be traveling to Mexico and then to Costa Rica, Lord willing, on the 3rd week of September. I covet your prayers for the provision of my plane ticket and the favorable results of my visa application. I pray that this trip will be fruitful and we will do our utmost best for the glory of God and the souls of men.

Pastor and Church, thank you for loving the Gospel, the lost, and Jesus Christ. We can do great things together as we lift Christ into this world. Praying for you.

Ephesians 3:8 KJV

Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

+639423766824 | +639761035310

deanaljimmedrano@gmail.com

Bethany Baptist Church-Makati